SYMPHONY LIFE'S GOLDEN JUBILEE BASH

KUALA LUMPUR: One of the country's oldest property developers, Symphony Life celebrated its 50th anniversary at Grand Hyatt Kuala Lumpur recently. Some 300 guests, including representative from various government agencies, government-linked companies and corporate companies attended the gala dinner.

Present were Symphony Life executive chairman Tan Sri Azman Yahya, Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Seri Abdul Wahid Omar and wife Datin Seri Kay Roserina

Mohd Kassim, Petrolim Nasional (Petronas) chairman Tan Sri Mohd Sidek Hassan and wife Puan Sri Wan Noorlina Wan Hussin, and Buro Ole Scheeren principal and architect Ole Scheeren. There was informative talk by Scheeren and performance by speed painter Brad Blaze, who paints large portraits of iconic personalities between three and six minutes.

The company, previously known as Bolton, was incorporated in 1964 and has since delivered more than 20,000 properties throughout the country.
